

THE WEST INDIES.—Waiting-Maids.

THE WEST INDIES. Series II
WIDE - WIDE - WORLD
by

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"

[Regd.] Postcard 7048.
From "THE WEST INDIES," illustrated by A. S. Forrest (A. & C. Black).

Printed in England.

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

Waiting Maids. In all hotels in the West Indies the waiting duties are performed by blacks. Sometimes men, and sometimes women fulfil this work, and the latter, in their cool white costumes, are a pleasant relief in the darkened rooms. The temperature being always over 70 degrees, the shutters of the rooms are invariably closed during the middle of the day.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

CTPA12.9